

It is rude and a true invasion to receive unwanted calls at any time. Why the 'no-call' list is being considered to be returned is baffling. We hope that these banks do not go ahead with this ridiculous plan just to boost their profits.